Personal Mission and Affirmations for Michael Fielden

Words that describe me: loving, honest, fair, caring, supportive, loyal, optimistic, creative, kind, helpful, moral, friendly, easy-going, forgiving, strong-willed, persistent, intelligent.

I am a dedicated and loving husband and father. My family always comes first. I am also a caring son.

I am a problem-solver. I enjoy making people happy by solving their problems, but need to remember that some people want to solve their own problems.

I am a loyal friend. I place a high value on true friendship and will do almost anything for my friends.

I am a fighter. I believe in sticking up for issues and people I believe in and for fighting for what is right.

I am an environmentalist. I support and participate in protecting our fragile ecosystem.

I am a dreamer. I believe nothing is impossible. I believe if we can picture something in our minds, we should be able to accomplish it. Yet, I'm also a realist and believe not all things are possible at all times.

I am a writer. Not necessarily a great writer, but I believe in the power and importance of the written word.

I continually strive to better myself in all areas.

I will demonstrate consistency of character based on unchanging moral and ethical principles.

I am committed to high quality performance that produces outstanding results of lasting value.

I must not violate the trust placed in me by family members, friends, and business associates.

I believe the best way to predict the future is to create it, by tenacity and perseverance alone, if necessary.

I am convinced that reason and accurate thinking provide the best foundation for achieving any goal.

To find happiness, fulfillment, and value in living I will:

- Lead a life centered around the principles of growth, honesty, patience, and trustworthiness.
- Remember the truly important in life are relationships, family, work, personal growth, and respect.
- Revere admirable characteristics in others, such as being responsible, trustworthy, fair, loyal, principle-centered, and organized, and attempt to implement similar characteristics in my own life.
- Recognize my strengths and develop talents as a person who is adaptable, trustworthy, diplomatic, and open-minded.
- Humble myself by acknowledging that I can be antisocial, disorganized and a procrastinator and by constantly striving to transform my weaknesses into strengths.
- Envision myself as a person who:
 - My wife thinks is compassionate, loyal, and trustworthy.
 - My child will think is caring, forgiving, moral and wise.
 - My wife thinks is creative, dependable, and responsible.
 - My child thinks is ethical, fair, sensitive, fun, and patient.
